Lovingly restored in 2004 this 1907 Shingle Style home graces Main Street and Ashburnham Center. Its attractive, picturesque charm includes quaint lead-glass windows, the second floor balcony, and rough stone columns lining the wrap around veranda.

Constructed in 1907 to celebrate the wedding reception of local resident, Blanche Hardy and husband Dr. Moritz Schlick, instructor of German at Zurich University in Switzerland, MainFare boasts unique appeal and grandeur yet reveals a warm, cozy and inviting interior home.
